

Kelly J. Dietsch

56175 Kenai Spur Hwy

Kenai, Alaska 99611

907 395-7386

dietschteach@gmail.com

Job Objective: To be a on-call guest speaker for The LeeShore Center promoting Healthy Relationships and Anti-bullying in the Kenai Public School District.

Highlights of Qualifications

- 17 years classroom teaching experience
- Long-time advocate for Non-Violent Communication (Marshall B. Rosenberg)
- Experienced communicator with developed small group skills
- Trained in Domestic Violence Advocacy, and Effects of Trauma on Children

Related Experience

- Facilitator/Advocate
  - Will have completed Healthy Relationships Plus Program (HRPP) and The Fourth R on line training by 10 March 2018
  - Comfortable with use of Non-Violent Communication techniques
  - Adept at controlling and facilitating small group learning
- Stress-Relieving Skills
  - Taught students to successfully cope with stressful situations
  - Incorporated whole body health into curriculum
  - Guided small groups in meditation and yoga
- Trauma Informed Training
  - Over 50 hours of Trauma Awareness and Resiliency training
  - 3 X Challenge Day adult participant
  - Keeping Alaska Youth and Families Safe Conference; Child Welfare Academy
- Unique Teaching Skills
  - Seattle Repertory Theater Bringing Theater to the Classroom
  - Trained professional learning group coach (Critical Friends Group®)
  - Mentor to at-risk Student (Washington Youth Academy)

Employment History

Child Advocate	The LeeShore Center	2016-present
Teacher	Everett Public Schools	2001-2016
Teacher	Highline School District	1999-2001
Various Positions	US Army Non-Appropriated Fund	1991-1995
Collections Officer	Credit Union in Augsburg Germany	1989-1991
Russian Linguist	US Army	1980-1989

Education History

Bachelor of Arts Degree	Florida Atlantic University	1998
Bachelor of Arts Degree	University of Maryland, Europe	1991
Certificate of Completion	Defense Language Institute	1986
Certificate of Completion	Defense Language Institute	1981