Our Mission

Cooper Landing School aims to provide a positive learning atmosphere, placing the highest emphasis on academic achievement and service to the community, while maintaining a balance between school, family, and community activities.

COOPER LANDING SCHOOL

A Little Bit of History

Beryl Lean

Founder

In July of 1928, the 29-year-old Beryl Lean started the conversation with the Commissioner of Education for the Territory of Alaska, Lester Henderson, and requested a school for six children.

OUR SCHOOL THROUGH TIME

Where We Started

The first school was held in the Lean's Cabin. It was called the Riddiford School.

1929 ●

First School Teacher

Margaret Barnett was the School's first teacher. The Lean's provided housing and meals for the teacher.

Locations

From 1952 to 1954, school was held in the Cooper Landing Community Hall until the current location was built.

1952 ●

New School House

The first schoolhouse was built on the newly designated school property.

1955 ●

OUR SCHOOL THROUGH TIME

Ready for Expansion

Needing more space, a classroom and small gym were constructed in front of the old schoolhouse.

Current School Building

The school as we know it was completed ten years later when the small gym was converted into a classroom and a full-size gym, office, and kitchen were added.
