

Confident, Caring and Creative Problem Solvers

Paul Banks

Paul wrote 65 songs and 9 plays for the children of Paul Banks Elementary School.

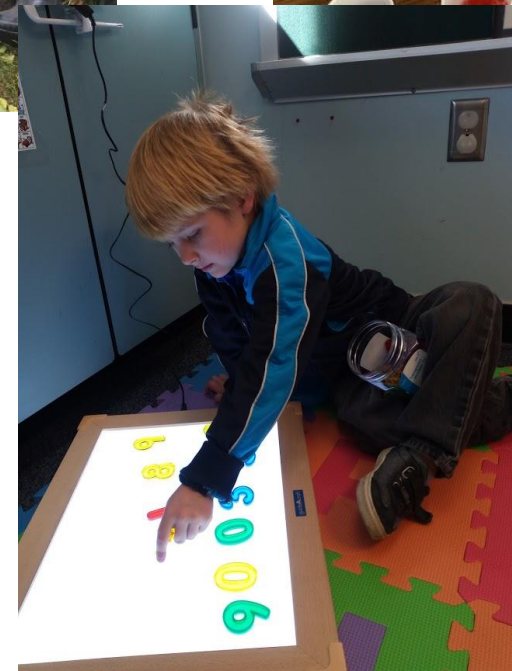

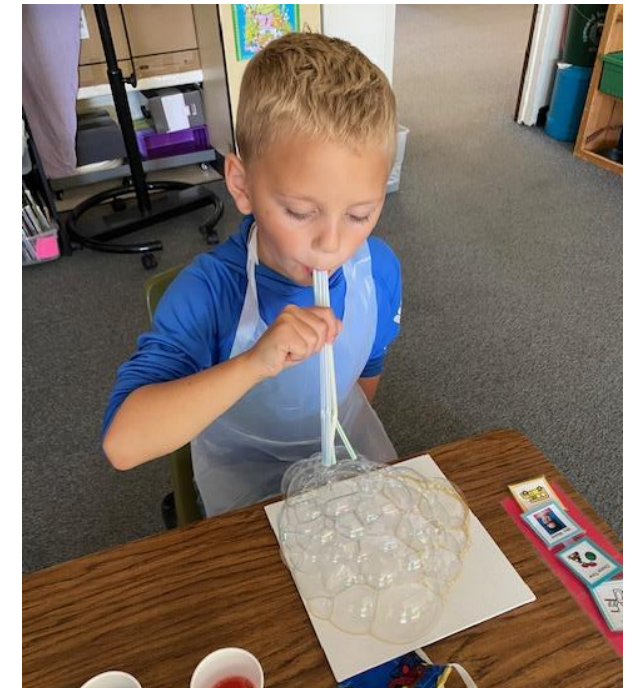

9 Classroom Teachers
3 Special Educational Teachers
1 PE/Music Teacher
17 Classified Employees
6 School Specialists

Our Clients

- PK-2 grade
- Special Education Resource School
- Two PK Programs
 - Title I
 - Structured
- Current Enrollment 136...160 w/PK
- Projection 174 w/o PK

Our Practices

- PK-2 Innocence of the child
- Focus on Early Literacy
- Early Intervention (data driven)
- Deft at serving a diverse population
- Hands-on learning
- Community engagement
- Beyond school walls

Remote Instruction

1st Grade Cohort

24

Choose activities each day to grow as a writer.

Objective:
I can write down words and sentences to share my thoughts.

- Mini Lesson: The Parts of a Story
- Journal Writing: Silly Sentence
- Sentence Fix-Up
- Mini Lesson: Transition Words part 2
- Story Map: My Fiction Story
- Write it: My Fiction Story

My helper and I agree that I am ready to show you I understand!

The interface features a light gray background with a white navigation bar on the left containing a back arrow. The content is organized into a grid. At the top, there are two boxes: a white one with a black border containing the instruction 'Choose activities each day to grow as a writer.' and a blue one with a white border containing the objective 'Objective: I can write down words and sentences to share my thoughts.' Below these are six activity cards arranged in two rows of three. Each card has a colored border and a white center with black text. Small white circular icons with a paperclip symbol are placed around the cards. To the right of the grid is a large yellow star with a white outline, containing the text 'My helper and I agree that I am ready to show you I understand!'.

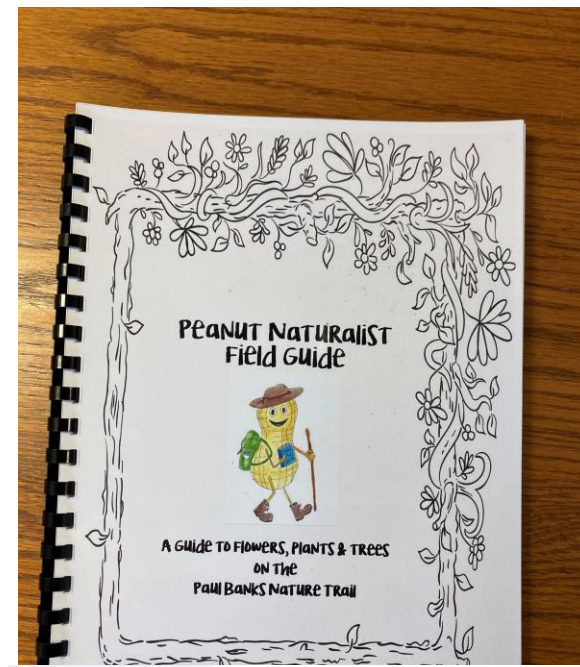

Peanut Naturalist Program

Paul Banks Elementary

Funded through grant from Captain Planet Foundation and
Paul Banks PTA

Kindergarten

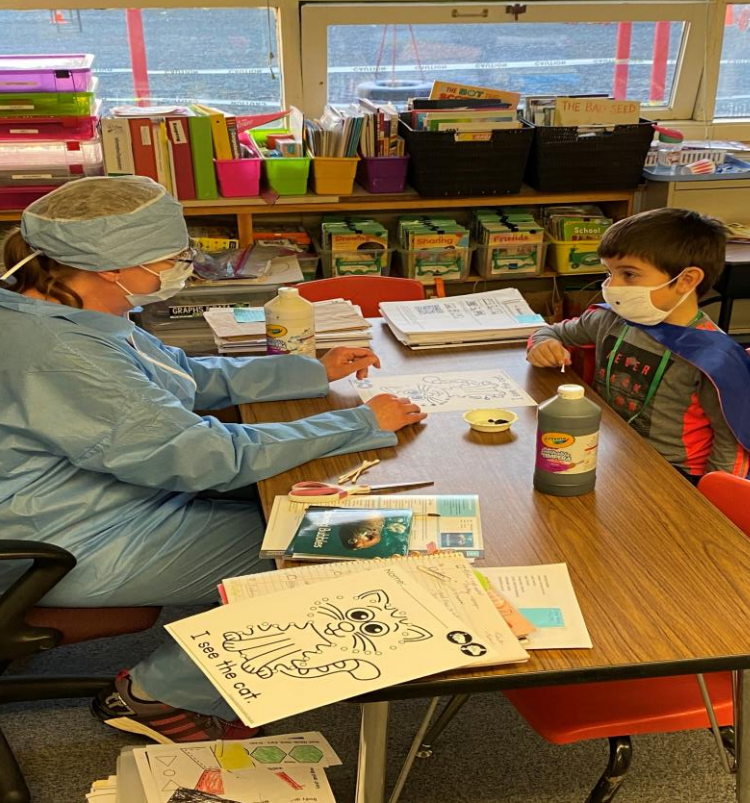

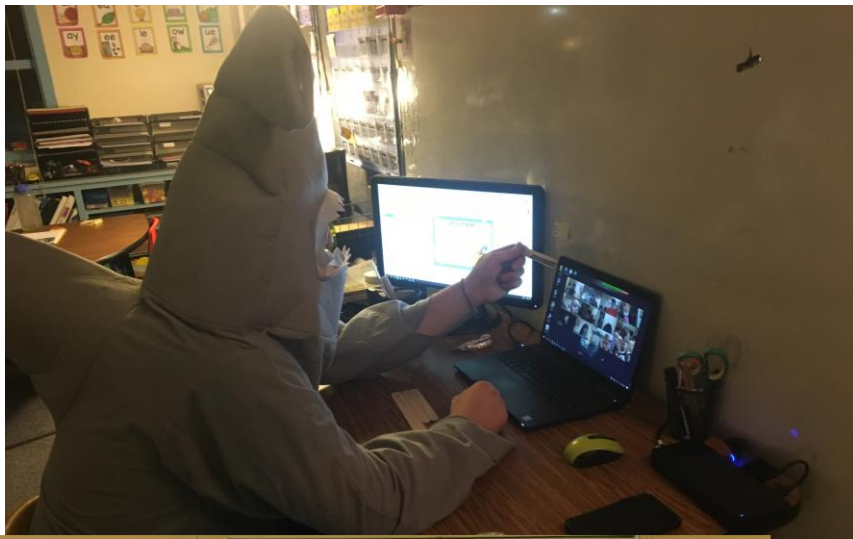

First Grade

Professional Development Staff Workshop

Hang in there KPBSD!

