The Board will establish and maintain a balanced budget. The Board will adopt an annual budget which is compatible with the district's mission, vision, strategic plan, and Board goals and objectives.

The District budget will be prepared annually from the best possible estimates of revenues and expenditures. The Superintendent or designee will determine the manner in which the budget will be prepared and will schedule the budget adoption process in accordance with legal time requirements. The Board will encourage public input throughout the budget process and take public input prior to the adoption of the budget or a revised budget. Public input early in the budget preparation process is encouraged.
