In order to instill public confidence in public office and provide public accountability, School Board members shall will disclose and avoid conflicts of interest involving any matter pending before the Board. A conflict of interest exists when a member is confronted with an issue in which the member has a personal or financial interest on a matter coming before the Board or an issue or circumstance that could render the member unable to devote complete loyalty and singleness of purpose to the public interest. Board members owe the public a duty to act in the best interests of the District.

Accordingly:-

Decision-making. The Board recognizes that when no conflict of interest requires abstention and/or recusal, it's members must vote on issues before the board. If a Board member may not participate in deliberating or voting on any decision when it is reasonably possible that the a Board member or a their family member may benefit personally or financially from the a Board decision, that board member must provide full disclosure of the conflict or potential conflict of interest to the Board. The Board, without that member's participation, will then approve or disapprove of the member's deliberations and voting on the issue. If the Board determines a conflict of interest prohibits participation, the member will recuse themselves and abstain from deliberations and voting. In such a case, the Board member shall abstain from voting and notify the Superintendent and Board president of the conflict of interest.

Appearance of impropriety. When a situation may create the appearance of impropriety, even where state and federal laws do not require any action, the Board members shall will fully disclose the interest, abstain from voting and avoid the appearance of impropriety circumstances. The Board, without that member's participation, will then approve or disapprove of the member's deliberations and voting.

Board members who have an actual or potential conflict of interest requiring disclosure will not seek In addition, the Board member shall not attempt to influence the decisions of staff or other Board members on the issue underlying matter, or on the member's participation in the matter.

Other duties. Board members are expected to avoid conflicts of interest in their other duties. This covers includes:

- Confidential information. Board members shall will not disclose or use confidential information acquired during the performance of official duties as a means to further their own personal or financial interests or the interests of a family member.
- Gifts. Board members shall will not accept a gift or economic benefit that would tend to improperly influence a reasonable person or that where Board members know or should know the gift is offered primarily for the purpose of influencing or rewarding them for official action.
- Business dealings with staff. Board members shall will not engage in a financial transaction for private business purposes with district staff that whom Board members directly or indirectly supervise.
- Compensation for services. Board members shall will not receive any compensation for services rendered to the District from any source except compensation for serving on the Board and reimbursement of expenses incurred as a Board member, as allowed by policy and law.

Other legal obligations. Board members ~~shall~~^{will} comply with state and federal laws pertaining to conflicts of interest. Nothing in this policy restricts or affects Board members' ~~duties~~^{to} to comply with those laws.
