The School Board believes that school libraries have a responsibility to nurture intellectual growth and freedom by providing:

- Materials/information that support and enrich the curriculum, taking into consideration students' varied interests, abilities, maturity levels and learning styles.
- Materials/information that will stimulate growth in factual knowledge, literary appreciation, aesthetic values and ethical standards.
- Materials/information that will support students' personal needs and enable them to make intelligent judgments in their daily lives.
- Materials/information that present opposing sides of controversial issues, so that students may learn, with guidance, how to analyze and think critically about what they read.
- Materials/information which realistically depict our pluralistic society and reflect the contributions of its various religious, ethnic and cultural groups.
