Parents/guardians must object each time the parent/guardian wishes to withdraw their student from a district activity, class or program or any standards-based assessment or test required by the State of Alaska. Categorical withdrawals from all activities, classes programs, or assessments are not permitted.

Students will not be penalized when withdrawn by parents/guardians from an activity, class, program, standards-based assessment, or test. Absences based on parent withdrawal will be excused and, as appropriate, alternative work will be assigned.

Teachers The District and parents/guardians serve as a team to ensure academic success for students. To support this team, schools have a responsibility to ~~can better understand and meet student needs if they work together. All of our schools have a duty to~~ communicate with parents/guardians frequently to assist parents/guardians in establishing home management with the home through a variety of methods and to help parents/guardians develop skills and techniques that which support classroom learning. Administrators and teachers should keep parents/guardians well-informed about school expectations and tell them when and how they can assist their children in support of classroom learning activities. The Board encourages staff training in effective communication with the home.

The Board encourages parents/guardians to serve as volunteers in the schools and to attend student performances and school meetings. The board encourages staff training on effective home communication. In an effort to maximize opportunities for parental involvement, an attempt will be made to accommodate parent schedules.
