1. Nicholas Conner v. KPB and Kenai River Center, Case No. 3KN-24-00920CI. Plaintiff, Nicholas Conner, filed a complaint in district court seeking equitable relief and $50,000 for "emotional distress, inconvenience, and harm resulting from" allegations that making the Kenai River Center a by-appointment-only facility and having restrooms that are not open to general public use violates state law. KPB filed a motion to dismiss the claim due to lack of subject matter jurisdiction and failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. KPB also opposed the request to change venue. On March 26, 2025, the plaintiff filed a notice of voluntary dismissal without prejudice prior to the court ruling on the pending motions. *Will be removed from future reports.

9. Kenai Peninsula Borough School District v. Fischer, Case No. S-18687 (Trial Court Case No. 3KN-19-00185CI). This appeal to the Alaska Supreme Court arises from a subrogation case filed against a School District employee to recover substantial health care costs paid by the health care plan. The Supreme Court upheld summary judgment in favor of the School District on breach of contract grounds but determined a genuine dispute of material fact remained regarding damages and remanded this case to the Superior Court on the limited issue of determining if some of the costs included in the damage determination were not subject to subrogation. There are respective motions pending before the Superior Court on remand. The court granted plaintiff's unopposed motion to continue the trial with a Trial Date Setting Conference currently scheduled for August 6, 2025.

KPB PC, Beachcomber LLC, et al.*, which upheld the KPB Planning Commission's denial of Beachcomber, LLC's CLUP and dismissing Beachcomber's appeal. Judge Joanis's April 4, 2024, decision also constituted a final decision in case 3KN-20-00034CI that was before Judge Gist. The Supreme Court issued an order on July 8, 2024, consolidating Beachcomber's appeals for the purposes of briefing, consideration and decision. Due to claims of constitutional defects in the process, KPB is participating on appeal. All parties have submitted briefs and await the Court's decision.
