

Kenai Peninsula Borough School District Graduation Rate

Classes of 2022–2026 Overview

School Board work session | Fall 2026

Where We Are Now

2026
Graduation
Rate: 84%

Up 7.07 points since the Class of 2022

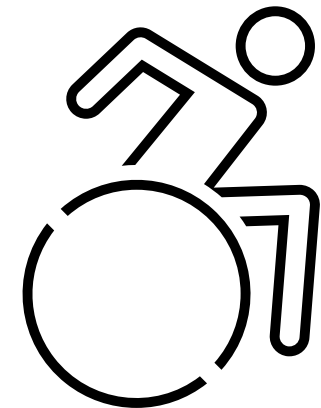

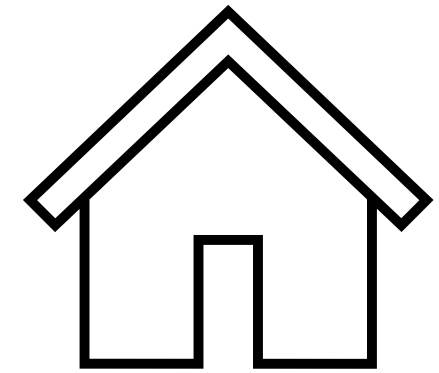

Five-Year Trend: Recovery Holds Districtwide 4-Year Graduation Rates

- 2022: 77.03%
- 2023: 80.19%
- 2024: 78.78%
- 2025: 85.01%
- 2026: 84.1%

Biggest Gains: Who Is Moving Up

- Largest Gains vs. 2025
 - Students With Disabilities: +11.22 pts
 - Homeless Students: +10.97 pts
 - English Learners: +4.01 pts
-
- All three were last year's lowest subgroups, and all three now exceed State rates.

KPBSD vs. State of Alaska

Graduation rates for key student groups

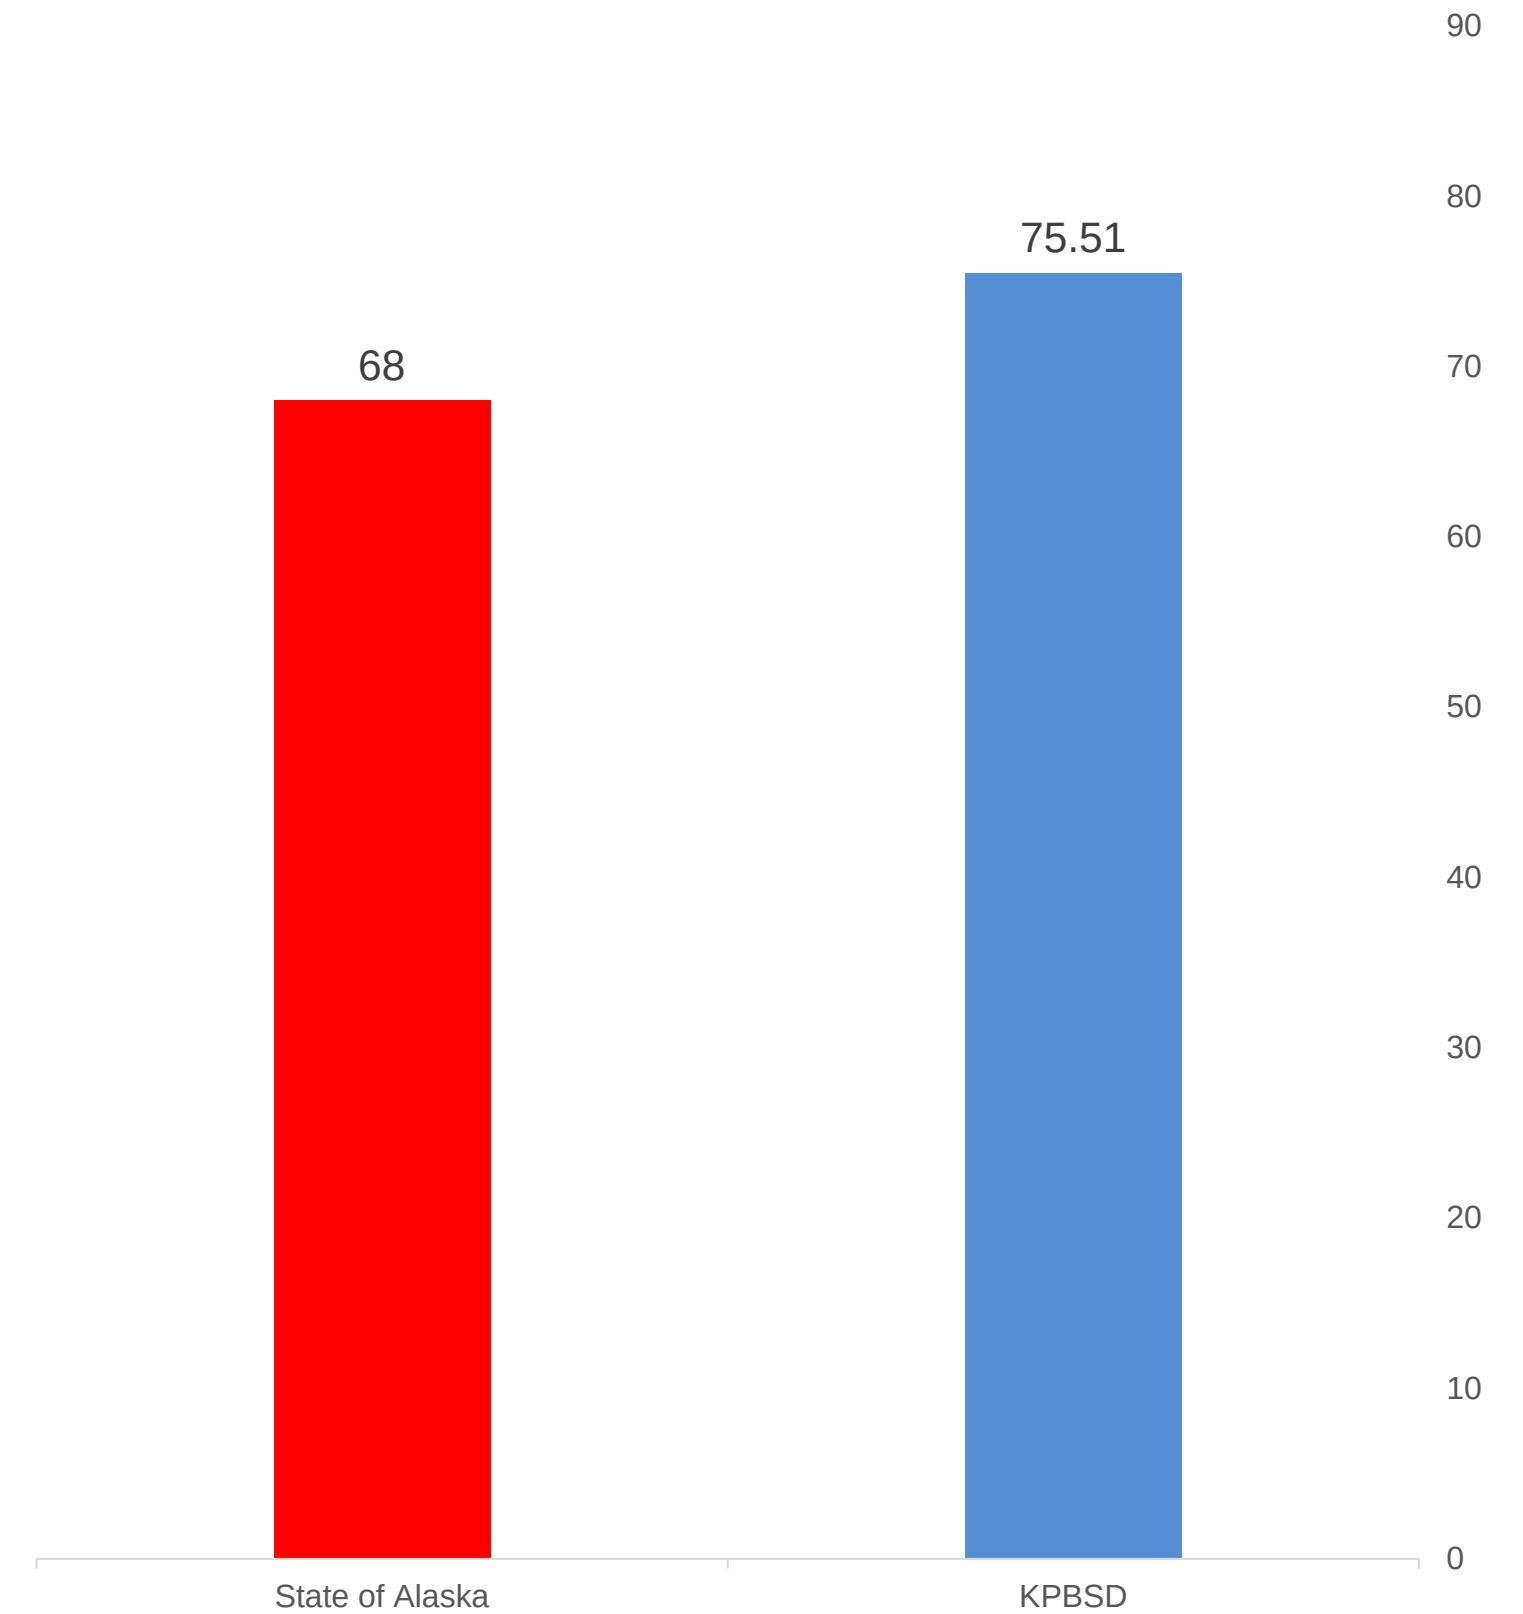

- Above the State in all five groups
- Students With Disabilities: +14.5 pts
- Homeless Students: +7.6 pts
- Alaska Native/AI: +7.5 pts
- Economically Disadvantaged: +1.2 pts
- English Learners: +0.9 pts

Alaska Native/American Indian Students

- Up 8.30 Points Since 2022
- 2022: 67.21%
- 2026: 75.51%
- State of Alaska: 68.0%

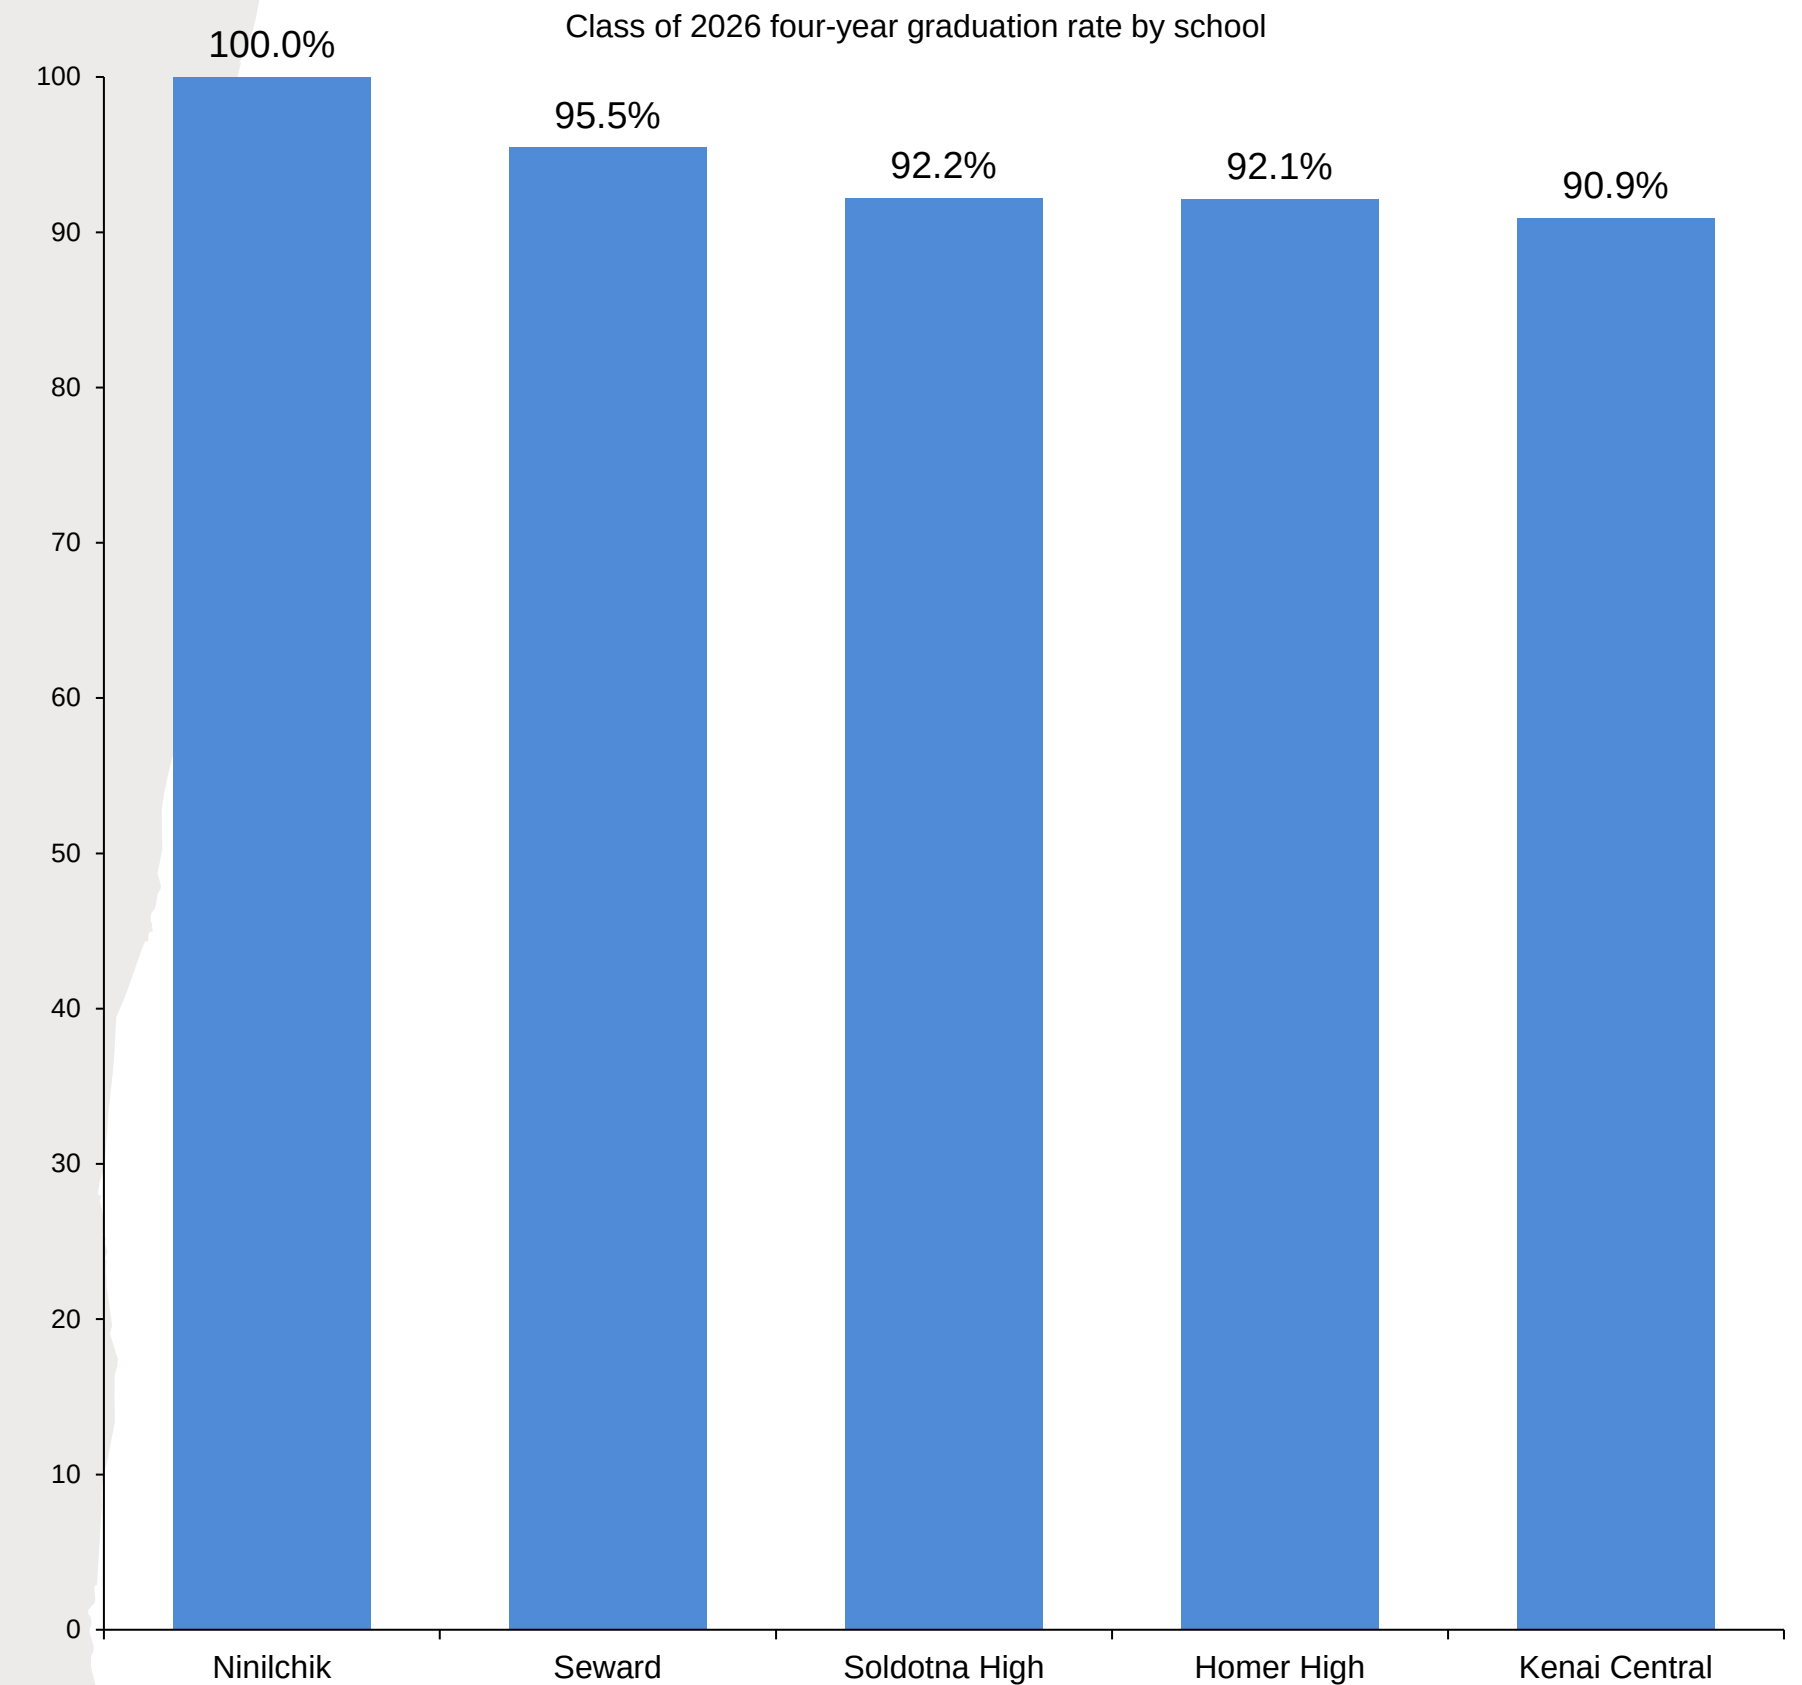

2026 Alaska Native/American Indian Graduation Rate

High School Graduation Rates

Four-year rates, Class of 2026

- All five above the district rate (84.1%)
- Ninilchik: 100% (5 of 5 students)
- Seward: 95.5%
- Soldotna High: 92.2%
- Homer High: 92.1%
- Kenai Central: 90.9%

Four-year rates, Class of 2026

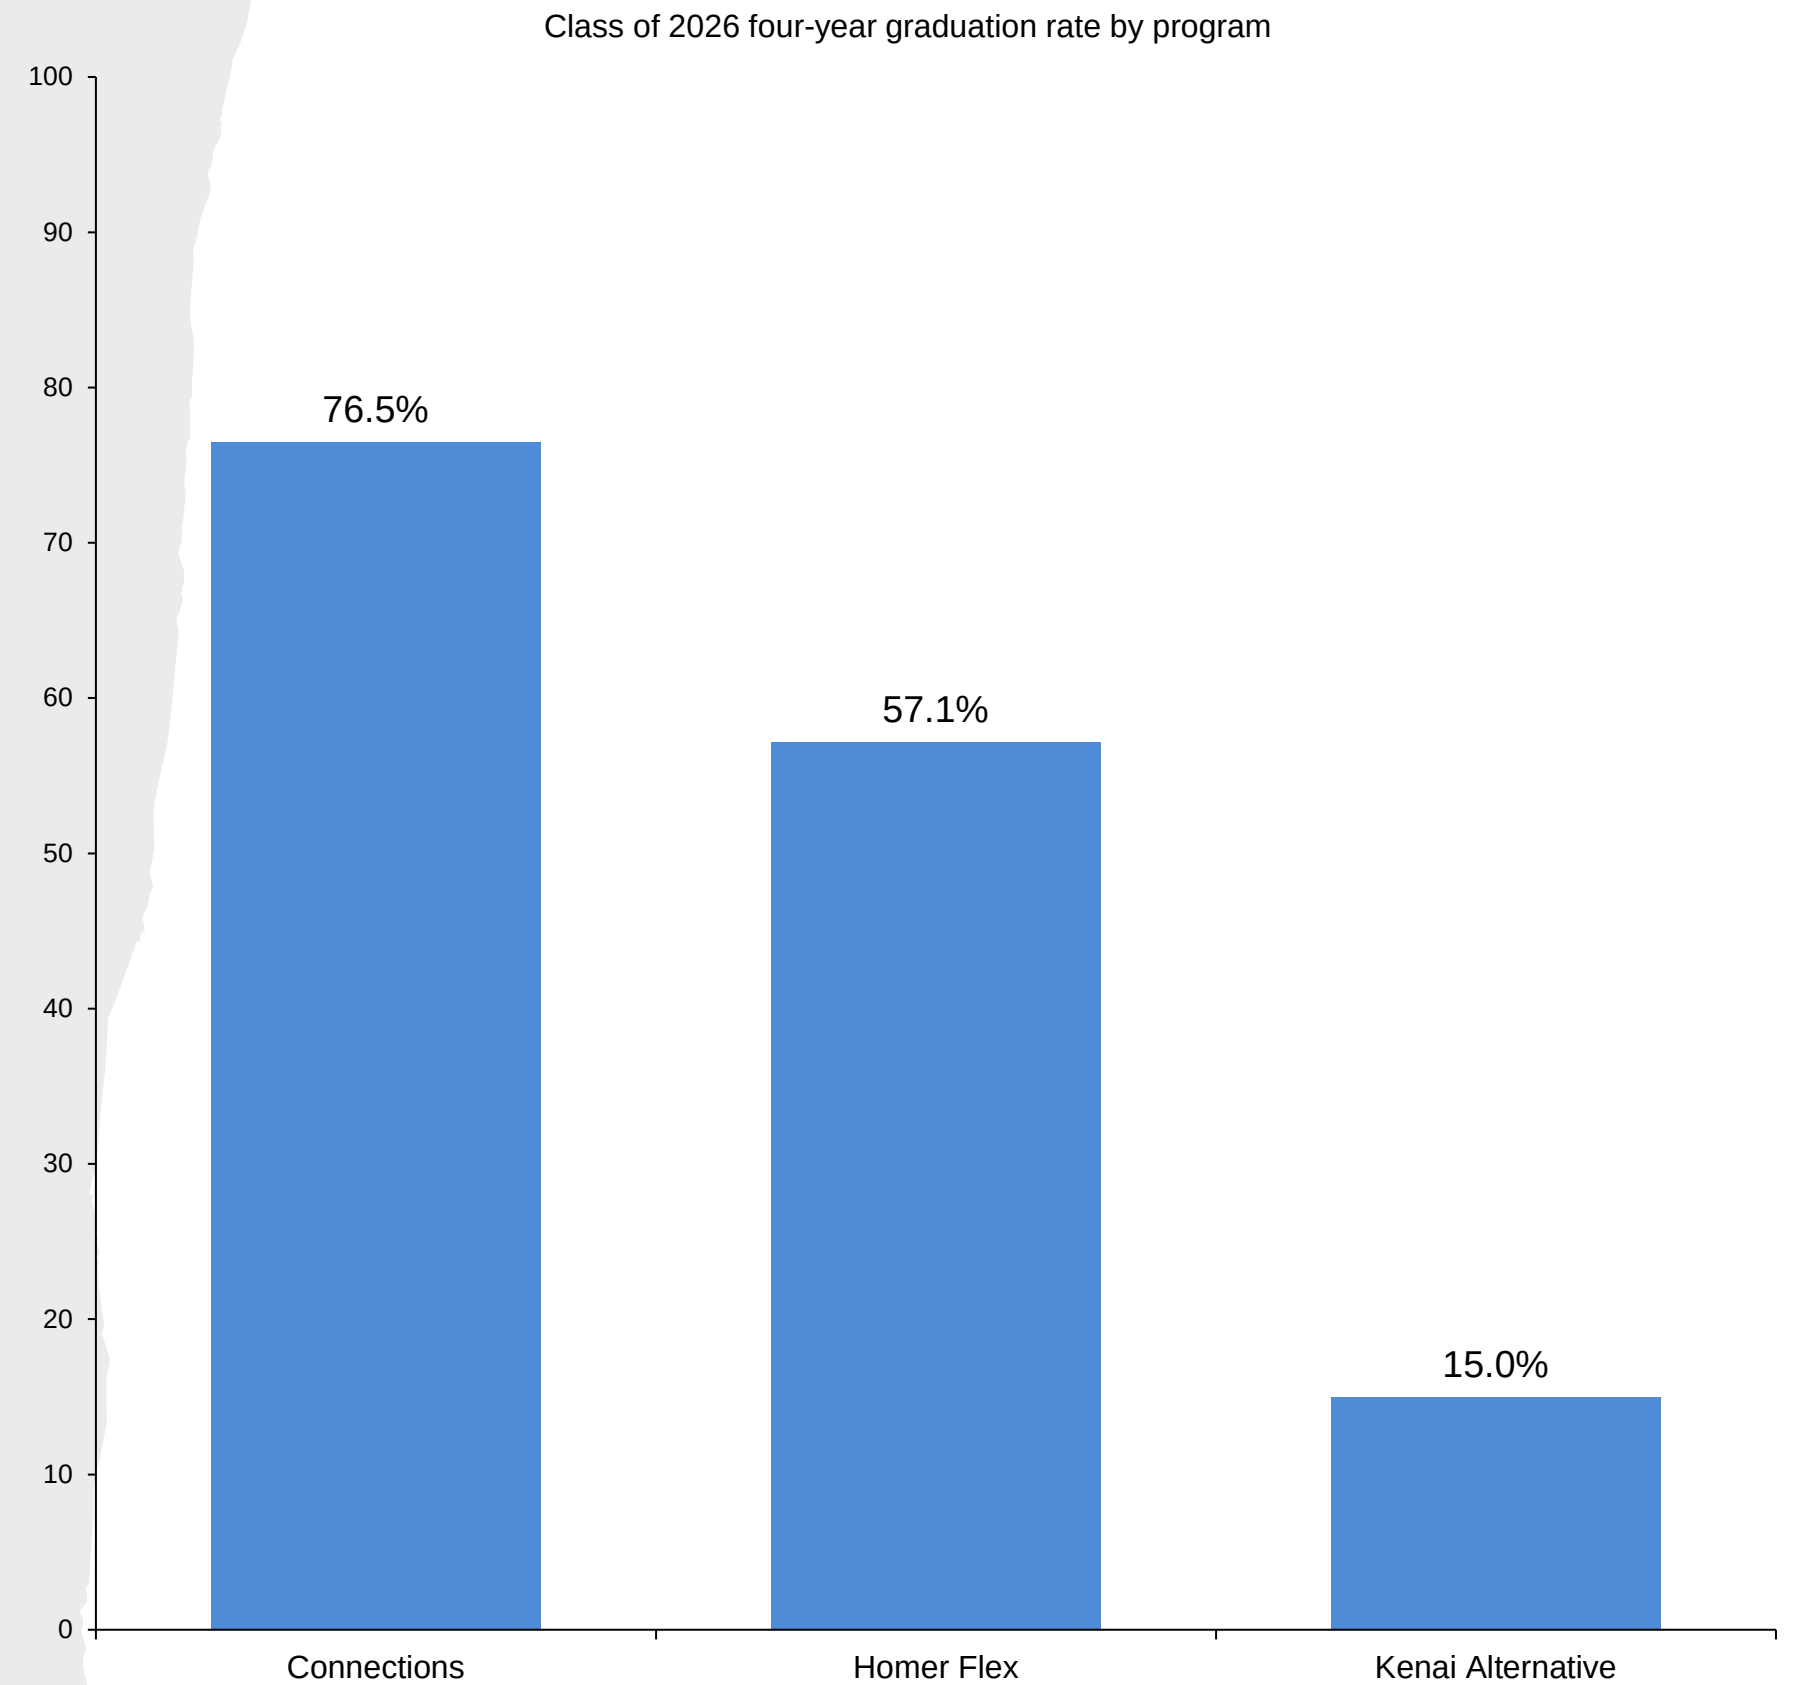

- Connections: 76.5% (130 of 170)

- Homer Flex: 57.1% (8 of 14)

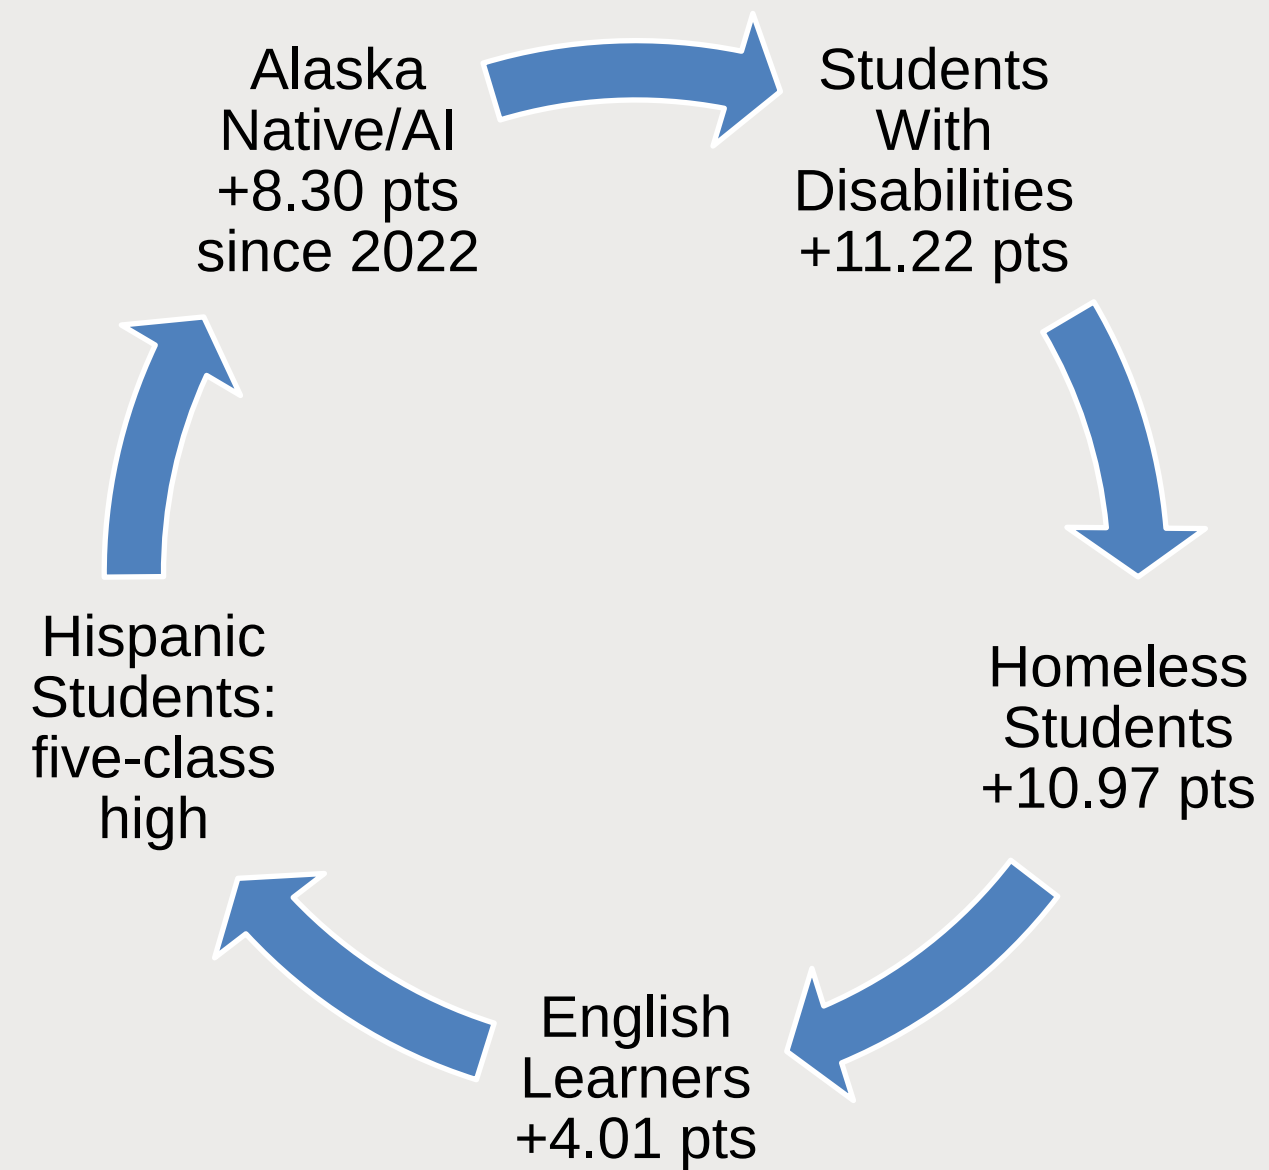

- Kenai Alternative: 15.0% (3 of 20)

Small cohorts: results swing widely

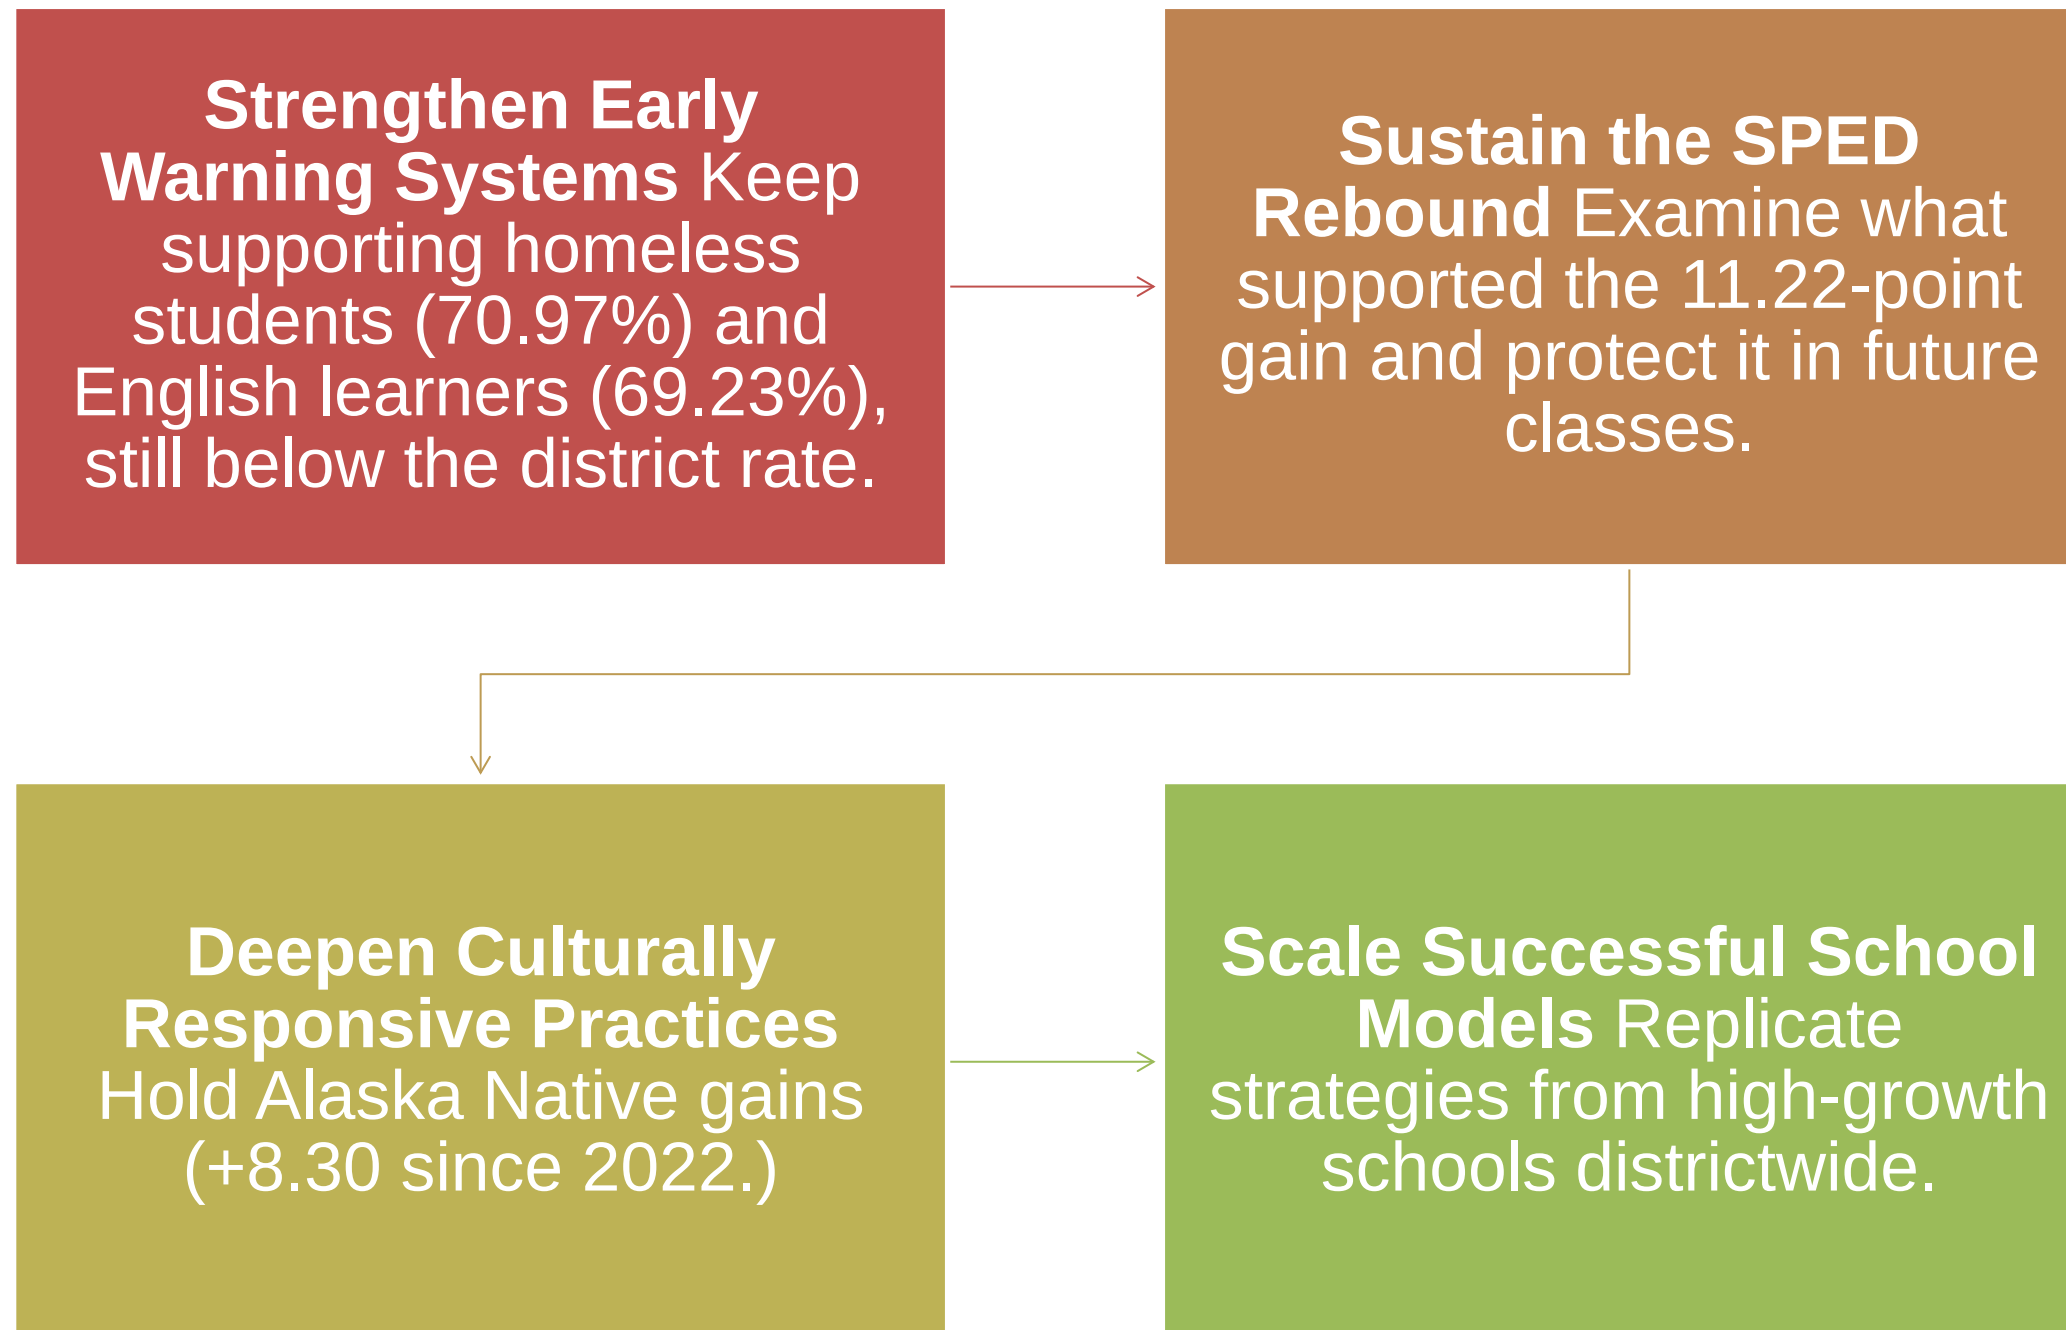

One student is 5–7 points at the alternative schools

Where Improvements Showed Up

Next Steps: How We Will Improve

Our gains are real. Now we make them last for every student.

Questions...

